

CRITERIA OF MAKING PAYMENT TO NON- EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

With changes in the Corporate Governance norms, the role and responsibilities of Non- Executive Directors (NED) and the degree and quality of their engagement with the Board has undergone a substantial change over a period of time. The Non executive Directors bring in a wider perspective in the deliberations and decision making of the Board which adds value to the Company. They also play a crucial role in the Independent functioning of the Board. Following are the criteria for making payments to Non –executive Directors of the Company:

Overall remuneration should be reflective of the size of the Company, complexity of the sector/industry/company's operations and the company's capacity to pay the remuneration.

- Sitting Fees :

Independent Directors ("ID") and Non-Independent Non- Executive Directors ("NED") may be paid sitting fees (for attending the meetings of the Board and of committees of which they may be members) and commission within regulatory limits. Quantum of sitting fees may be subject to review on a periodic basis, as required.

- Remuneration :

Section 197 of the Companies Act, 2013, allows a Company to pay remuneration (excluding sitting fees) to its NEDs at a specified percentage of net profits of the Company, subject to the prior approval of the shareholders of the Company. Remuneration referred to above, may be paid to Non-Executive Directors as may be decided by the Board of Directors of the Company with the prior approval of Nomination and Remuneration Committee from time to time, depending on the extra time that may be devoted and contributions made by the Non-Executive Directors to the Company.

Within the parameters prescribed by law, the payment of sitting fees and commission will be recommended by the NRC and approved by the Board.

Overall remuneration (sitting fees and commission) should be reasonable and sufficient to attract, retain and motivate Directors aligned to the requirements of the Company (taking into consideration the challenges faced by the Company and its future growth imperatives).

Overall remuneration practices should be consistent with recognised best practices.

The aggregate commission payable to all the NEDs and IDs will be recommended by the NRC to the Board based on Company's performance, profits, return to investors, shareholder value creation and any other significant qualitative parameters as may be decided by the Board.

The NRC will recommend to the Board, the quantum of commission for each Director based upon the outcome of the evaluation process which is driven by various factors including attendance and time spent in the Board and committee meetings, individual contributions at the meetings and contributions made by Directors other than in meetings.

In addition to the sitting fees and commission, the Company may pay to any Director such fair and reasonable expenditure, as may have been incurred by the Director while performing his/her role as a Director of the Company. This could include reasonable expenditure incurred by the Director for attending Board/Board committee meetings, general meetings, court convened meetings, meetings with shareholders/creditors/ management, site visits, induction and training (organised by the Company for Directors) and in obtaining professional advice from independent advisors in the furtherance of his/her duties as a director.

- Payment to Independent Director

An Independent Director shall not be entitled to any stock option and may receive Sitting fees and reimbursement of expenses for participation in meetings of the Board or committee thereof and profit related remuneration up to a specified percentage of net profits in such proportion, as may be permissible under the Companies Act, 2013 and any other applicable law at the discretion of the Board.

The above criteria and policy are subject to review by the Nomination & Remuneration Committee and the Board of Directors of the Company from time to time
